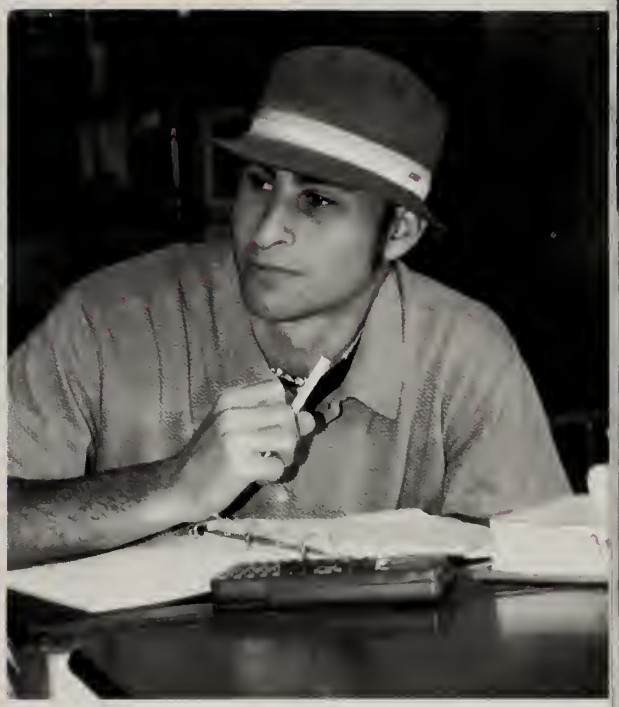
The past is gone, the present is full of confusion, and the future scares the hell out of me! --- David Leurs Stein

Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be wanted for, it is a thing to be achieved.
--- William Jennings Bryan



As this road comes to an end,
Know that another truly does begin.
As this door closes on special times,
Precious memories begin.
Memories of friends we hold within our hearts,
We'll take hold of them,
No matter how far apart.

— T. Bovdreax

You don't have to act cheery.
And strong every minute,
When life sends,
Such hard things your way.
It's okay to reach out,
And lean on your friends . . .
We'll be there for you,
Day after day.

— Unknown

There are places remember,
All my life,
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone, and some remain,
All these places have their moments.
— The Beatles
``In My Life

'Celebrate we will
For life is short, but sweet for certain,
We're climbing two by two
To be sure these days continue
These things we cannot change''

— Dave Matthews Band

Fly and you will catch the wind; dream and you will reach your goal. — Unknown

"So be prepared for the chance of a lifetime,
Be prepared for sensational news.
A shining new era,
Is tiptoeing nearer . . .
Of course you're expected
To take certain duties on board
(But) the future is littered with prizes."

The Lion King

seniors

A whole new world
A new fantastic point of view
No one to tell us on
Or where to go
Or say we're only dreaming

Unbelievable sights
Indescribable feeling
Soaring, tumbling, freewheeling
Through an endless diamond sky

A whole new world
A 100,000 things to see
I'm like a shooting star
I've come so far
(I'm leaving) where I used to be

A whole new world
That's where we'll be
A thrilling chase
A wonderous place
For you and me
—Aladdin
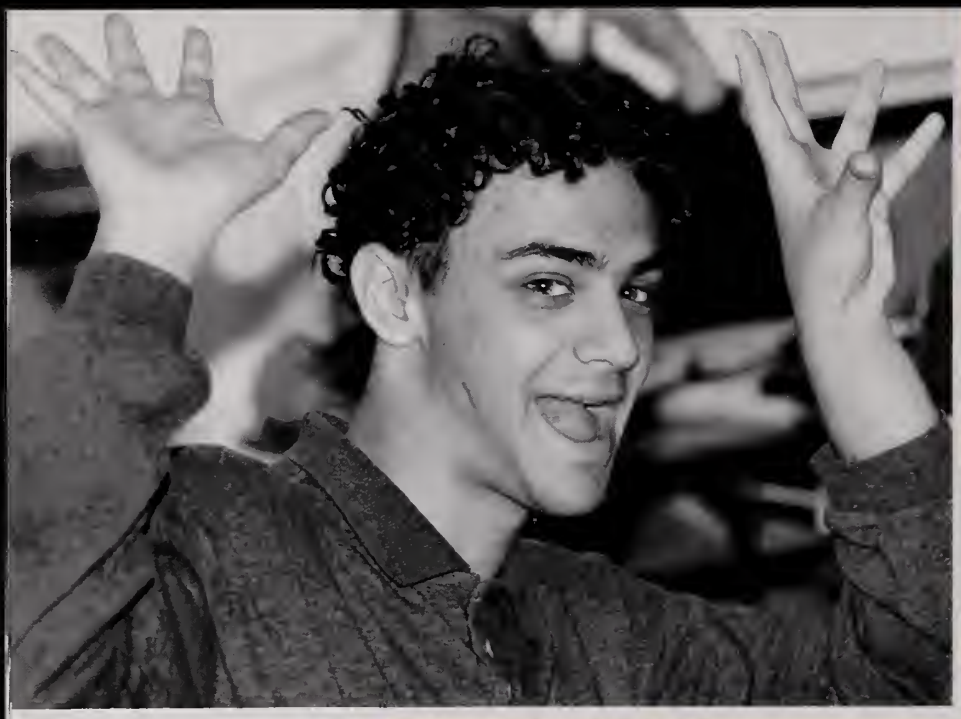
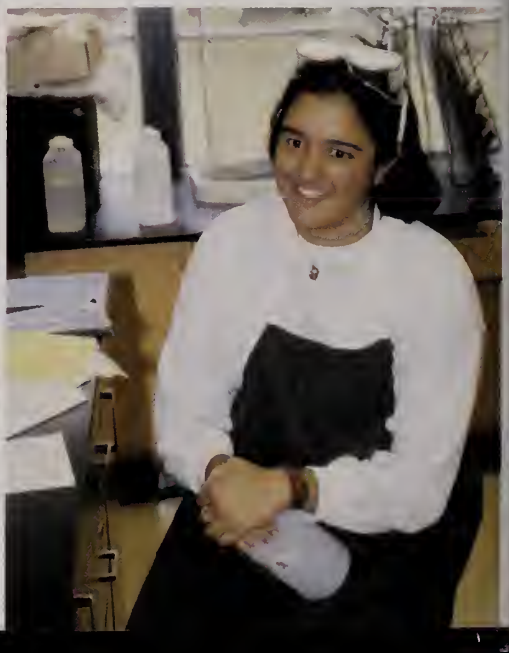
Tim Rice



seniors



It's the circle of life
And it moves us all
Through despair and hope
Through faith and love
Till we find our place
On the path unwinding
In the circle
The circle of life

—Lion King

the prom 97

Bienvenue a la rue Bourbon. On the evening of May 17, 1997, the class of 1998 spent a wonderful time on Bourbon Street. It was a culmination of hard work, creativity and class spirit that made the transformation of the gymnasium into the French Quarter's Bourbon street possible. We found ourselves letting go of our everyday high school worries for this very special night when we were with our friends. As we danced to the evenings final song, Bryan Adams' ''In Your Eyes'' the night flew by all too quickly. Although the night was over much too soon we would forever cherish in ourt hearts the memories of our exceptional prom night.

"A friend is someone special — the dearest kind of friend, who's always there beside you, through whatever life may send. The one who shakes your ups and downs — your joys — both big and small. And one who doesn't look for words of praise yet deserves them most of all, with a heart full of thanks for the sweet things you do and a heart full of love especially for you."

— Unknown

Can you believe how these four years have flown by? As freshman our biggest worry was finding our way through the halls of SHS. Now, as graduating seniors, our concerns have grown to making our way through the complicating maze of life. The Class of 1998 will go their separate ways, but we will all remember how to fly like an eagle.

In our classrooms their knowledge, their encouragement, and their enthusiasm, drives us to excel. They are role models enriching our lives with knowledge, and our friends providing us with understanding and support. Our teachers impact on us is not just confined to the classroom, and they can be found producing our musicals, and plays, coaching our sports, and advising our activities. As students preparing to enter a different world, we feel blessed with the guidance and inspiration that our teachers have provided for us. As we progress with our journey through life, we will continue to build upon the foundation that they have given us, knowing it is a strong one that will serve us well.

halloween

Although the halloween assembly was held after school for the first time, the festivities, which started at the beginning of the school day were a big success, with many students coming to school in full costume. Many students had original and creative ideas in choosing their costumes. These outfits included such varied items as road signs, toilet men, the Simpsons, tissue boxes, playing cards decorated with red roses, and the Lisa Kaplan Dancers. It was another terrific halloween celebration.

homecoming '97

Bad weather might have delayed the celebration, and dampened the playing fields, but did not discourage the crowd that finally gathered for the annual homecoming festivities. The senior class chose Breanna Giorgio as their queen and Mark Tang as her escort. Other members of the senior court included Amanda Jacobson and Danny Brundage, Cassie Clark and Richie Levine, Rachel Rung and Greg T. Curtis, Lisa Robinson and Ravi Mehta, Alison Blacker and Adam Blaustein, Ellen Goldshine and Sam Chates. Once again, over coming strong competition, the senior class float was voted the best.

activities showcase '97

Sharon High School held its first Activities Showcase, during the last period, on the day before the Thanksgiving break. Under the supervision of the coordinator of athletics, the athletic council, the fall sports captains, and the club presidents the Showcase was a great success. All of the high school clubs and teams were given an opportunity to make a presentation. These included a demonstration of some fantastic tumbling from the girls gymnastic team, and some fantastic footwork from the step team. Presentations also included Floor Invasion, the pregame pump up cheer from the field hockey team, a cheer from the cheerleaders, and an original medley of songs from the senior girls. A special thanks to Debbie Schwartz for her efforts in making the Showcase such a success.

Into The Woods

Be careful what you wish for. Cinderella wished to go to the King's Ball, Jack's mother wished for riches, and the baker and his wife to have a child. And they got their wishes when the Sharon High Drama department presented Stephen Sondheim's musical Into The Woods on November 21, 22, and 23, 1997. The spectacular set turned the auditorium into a fairy tale setting and all involved in the production made strong contributions which contributed to three sold-out performances. Congratulations to the cast and crew and a special thanks to Mrs. Dennis, Ms. Vasti, and Musical Director Ms. McNamara.

Where has the time gone?
It seems like just yesterday
you walked into kindergarten,
a little girl full of dreams and hopes.

And so quickly,
you're leaving the Sharon schools
to embark upon the rest of your life, and hopes and unlimited potential.

We know that whatever the future holds for you, you will soar . . .
because nothing can stop you!

To my dearest Shari,

It was seventeen years ago that a little miracle of life came into this World. Although there have been some twists and turns, the joy you have given me has been my guiding light; my gift of happines.

"You are everything to me;
You are all that I wish to be;
You are my hero."

May all your dreams overcome your fears and come true. Stand tall and proud, my dearest sweet daughter for, "you are the wings beneath my feet."

Love,
MOM

To Our Son Stephen,

You've made us very proud of you all these years. You've always been an achiever and your inner strengths and driving force will take you wherever you need to go in life. Your caring and thoughtful ways have shown us what a wonderful man you've turned out to be. Your leadership qualities throughout your High School years have been outstanding, and your love for the elderly has been so rewarding for you. We wish you all the success, happiness, and love in whatever road you choose. We love you very much and we'll miss you when you're off in Atlanta, but one thing is for sure. We will always be proud of our wonderful son.

We Love You,
Mom + Dad

To Our #1 Grandson, Stephen,

From the day you were born you brought us nothing but joy. We were always proud to introduce you as our grandson, because you have such a warm, friendly, and wonderful personality. You never disappointed us in all your endeavors. The day you invited us to come to a Schlep party, we were amazed to see all you had done for the elderly people in Sharon. You are really one in a million. There aren't many that could ever fill your shoes. We know that whatever you chose to do in your life, you'll succeed because you're a mover, a shaker, and above all else someone who is loved by all, especially your Nana + Papa.

Dear Stephen,
I wish you all the luck in the world. I know you will go far and achieve all that you wish for. I am very proud of you and know you will be successful. I love you with all my heart.
Love Nana Schneider

To My Big Brother Stephen,
You've always been fun with me and I like when you take me places. I'll miss you when you're at Emory. Please don't forget about me. I love you and have fun.
Love Cory

To my Big bro Steve,
We have shared many memories and have been very close for 14 years. You are not only my brother, but you are also my best friend. It is so sad to see you go but that will not ruin our friendship. I will visit you whenever I have the chance. You have inspired me with many things and lead me down the right path. Good Luck in the future.
Love,
B.J.

TRACY,

Dedication to Lindsay Farah Villani

Four years have passed since you first walked into Sharon High,
And now marks end, the culmination, time for us to say good-bye.
Having our second baby graduate is no easier than the first;
Although the heart is filled with pride, it's also about to burst.
You've made us proud to see you grow, and also to mature;
It's still so hard knowing that you'll be leaving our front door.
I'm writing this poem so one day you can reminisce;
Somewhere down the road these will be wonderful times that you'll miss.
Ms. Maccini and Ms. Decas — your mouth was always the devil;
Mrs. Lampert's teaching aid, where you enjoyed the personal level.
Lots of surprise Sweet 16's, and McDonalds' favorite "Lung";
Mr. Norris' hero of which you were unsung.
Collect calls to mom, wishes on the 11:11 beep,
A personal spoon and fork, not to hit the garbage, but for you to always keep.
An Honor Society inductee, a Sharon Manor volunteer,
Miss Perfection at art projects, and "Shaping the Meat" for a future career.
Editor of the yearbook, Paris for the soul,
Graduating with High Honors — Yes! you've reached your goal.
Here's your chance to learn,
your chance to grow,
your chance to spread your wings;
Although our hearts will miss you so, the pride in us still sings.
You'll embark on your own, because college dictates that it's time;
Provide beauty, value and friendship, and then call us with your DIME!
High School is over now — but Lindsay, your work has just begun;
Just compare college to Oak Hill Camp, and always have lots of Fun, Fun, Fun!

Congratulations on all you've achieved,

Mom, Dad, Ashley, Cameron, Grandma, and Mili

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL
CONGRATULATIONS BOSTER.
